

Failure IS an Option

2

SUGGEST

If the first way didn't work, try a second and a third...change your strategy.

1

ENCOURAGE

Encourage kids to keep trying. Anything worth doing is worth doing well.

3

PRESENT

Ask your child for THEIR help in solving a problem. Let them teach you.

4

OFFER

Guide them through the process the first time then let them try it solo.

6

DISCOVER

Allow them to explain their strategy and why they chose this particular way of doing something.

5

REMIND

Remind them of struggles and triumphs they had in the past. They learned then and can learn now.

7

CELEBRATE

Failure is GOOD. Don't shy away from failure, uncover what you can learn from it.
